Dear Mr Lahey:

As I am awaiting to receive the building permit for the new construction of a one-story, 2,285-square-foot Synagogue, it was communicated to me yesterday that the area variances approved in November 2019 has been expired. This is a total surprise to me because when I extended the date of my site plan approval for a further extension I was told that everything was approved and not to worry.

I have never been told by the Town Board that I should address the Zoning Department as well. Furthermore, I never received anything in writing from the ZBA that the variances will expire in a year.

However, to rectify this matter I am requesting that the two (2) area variances approved in November 2019 be re-approved by the ZBA at its October 18, 2021 meeting.

Thanking you in advance.

With best wishes,

Rabbi Yacov Borenstein
